THE INAUGURAL Freestyle BMX Amateur Tournament, sponsored by Koslow Cycle of Lombard, took place on Sept. 11 at Villa Park's Oktoberfest in Lions Park. Sixteen BMX riders competed in the event, which was judged by professional BMX riders Kevin Porter, Tony Laconte and Kyle Hodge. The above photo shows Garrett Acker of Villa Park, who earned second place. Koslow Cycle donated two bicycles to be raffled off at the end of the competition. Proceeds from the event benefitted the Villa Park Skatepark Committee, which is dedicated to the construction of a new skate/BMX park in the village.
